FOREWORD

A century ago pioneers began a great journey westward to find 'gold.' Some were killed--some fell by the wayside--,but the experienced and wiser ones surged ever onward to reach their goal. As it was then, so be it today!

Four years ago, a group of young men and women started on the most important journey in their life, to seek education! Some took a great interest in their studies and others went even farther and went into extracurricular activities to display their talents. The 'Talisman' has kept an account of these men and women and their activities throughout their years here. This is their final account from the 'Talisman', but as long as there is life, there will always be an account of young men and women seeking their 'gold', education.

DEDICATION

The staff of the 1949 Talisman wishes to dedicate this '49 Gold Rush anniversary edition to the Head of the Woodruff High School Social Studies Department who is Mr. Andrew Hoeflin.

We feel that this is an appropriate dedication for two reasons. First - on this one hundredth anniversary of the 1849 westward trek for gold we realize its historical significance. Mr. Hoeflin is more than a teacher of history--he is truly a 'student' of history. Those of us fortunate enough to sit in Mr. Hoeflin's classes realize the significance of many historical events under his guidance.

Secondly, we are happy to make this dedication as a personal tribute to Mr. Hoeflin. In the corridors, in the study halls, and in the class rooms, Mr. Hoeflin rates our respect, our cooperation, and our admiration.

For your sympathetic and systematic help in our trek for 'gold' (education, that is) we thank you.

ADMINISTRATION

On the land of John A. Sutter,
In the winding churning millrace
Lay the gold that made great history,
Lay the gold that caused much grief,
Lay the gold that drew all men
Toward the westward setting sun.
The cry came first from a man named Marshall
Echoing along the winding millrace,
Through the towns and campings small,
Through the winding mountain passes,
Through the stifling air of deserts,
Over rough and scrubby prairies,
Over broad and waving wheat fields,
Over rolling hills and valleys,
To the sharp and jagged coastline,
To all the people of our nation
Rang the cry of all men's weakness,
Rang the cry of gold.

CLASSES

From the rocky bound Atlantic,
From the fertile grassy lowlands,
From their snug and cozy houses,
Down the raging torrent waters
On their rafts of crude cut logs,
Then across the rolling prairies
In their clumsy prairie schooners,
Some on horseback, some with burros,
Some by nature's own conveyance,
Came the ever-growing masses,
Came the eager fortune hunters,
Toward the ever setting sun.

WINSHIP

The winners! In the election for school officers of the coming year the victors were appropriately photographed on the steps in front of 'their' Woodruff. During 1949-50 Ralph Kats will serve as vice-president and Iris Biegel in the top spot as president.

This is the ambitious crew that assembles every picture and every word of copy in this book. The Talisman editorial staff works the whole year through--as soon as the 1949 edition was 'put to bed' work was begun on the 1950 issue.

ORGANIZATIONS

They came across the widespread meadows,
Over gentle sloping hillsides;
Saw the waving grains and grasses,
Saw the dusty burning desert,
Saw the thundering herds of bison,
Beheld the dark and monstrous mountains,
Beheld the whooping savage Indians,
Perceived the burning maddening thirst
Of days and days of tortured longing,
Saw the struggle they were in for,
But their courage never faltered
As they moved across the land.

KEY CLUB

Seated at the very latest model of office composing machines is Madeleine Kroeger, whose efforts have gone into the entire type-setting job of the 1949 Talisman. This Vari-Typer is a machine whose principle features are inter-changeable type faces and spacing. It has a mechanism which adjusts the right margins and is operated somewhat similar to an ordinary typewriter. While the cost of this machine was not inconsiderable, the savings it will effect over a period of years will make its purchase a profitable one. Its use is another in the steps necessary to bring a better book within the reach of a larger student body. Few, if any books of this type, are so truly made by and for students.

ACTIVITIES

Finally after months of travel
Came they to this land of promise,
Found the spreading rumors
Greatly over stated.
Diligently panned they gravel,
Diligently searched the creek beds,
Tramped the hard and crusted ledges
Of the rough and tow'ring mountains.
Aye, they suffered many hardships,
Felt the gnawing pangs of hunger,
Without food the days dragged by
And the vultures gathered in the cloudless sky.
Children turned their heads and whimpered
When their fathers came not homeward.
Families with their fingers tattered
From the sharp and ripping stones
Sought on for the yellow metal,
Sought on for the hoards of riches,
Sought on for the gleaming gold.

JUNIOR PROM

In the Spring every young heart lightly turns to thoughts of-'The Junior Prom,' an annual affair which leads the list of important events on the Junior calendar. Reigning over the 1949 Prom was the President of the Junior Class, Bob Glass, and his choice for queen, Gloria Williams.

Nancy Moore, Charles Gaines, Joan Severns, Loretta Williamson, Dick Quinley

Seated: Grover Miller

The lawyer, Mr. Pitchly, (Grover Miller) who has been trying to help the family out of their financial troubles is overwhelmed when he finds his efforts have been useless, and the family has gone back to their old extravagant habits.

ATHLETICS

Then through months of doglike struggle
Came the day of great rejoicing,
Came the day of foreseen riches,
Came the day of all their longing.
Sought they through this land of terror,
Found to their extreme amazement
Gold beneath their very feet.
Fought like savage Indian warriors
For their neighbors' precious land.
And they purchased fancy garments,
Firewater by the barrel,
Celebrated like a cyclone,
Shot their pistols in the campings,
Spent the nights in wild orgies,
In the daytime they recovered,
Spent their hoards like maddened fools,
But caring not, as they had found their precious gold.

ALL-STATE

MONROE

*Best of luck
to a swell guy
Zack Monroe*

The Sports Section of the Talisman this year is spotlighting the boy, who, in their opinion, is the most outstanding athlete of the '1948' and '1949' season.

This year their choice is Zack Monroe.

Zack has been an outstanding performer on the Warrior athletic squads for four years and, as a fine tribute was Captain of the Basketball and Baseball teams this year.

He showed great possibilities as an honorable mention on the All-State Football Team at quarterback.

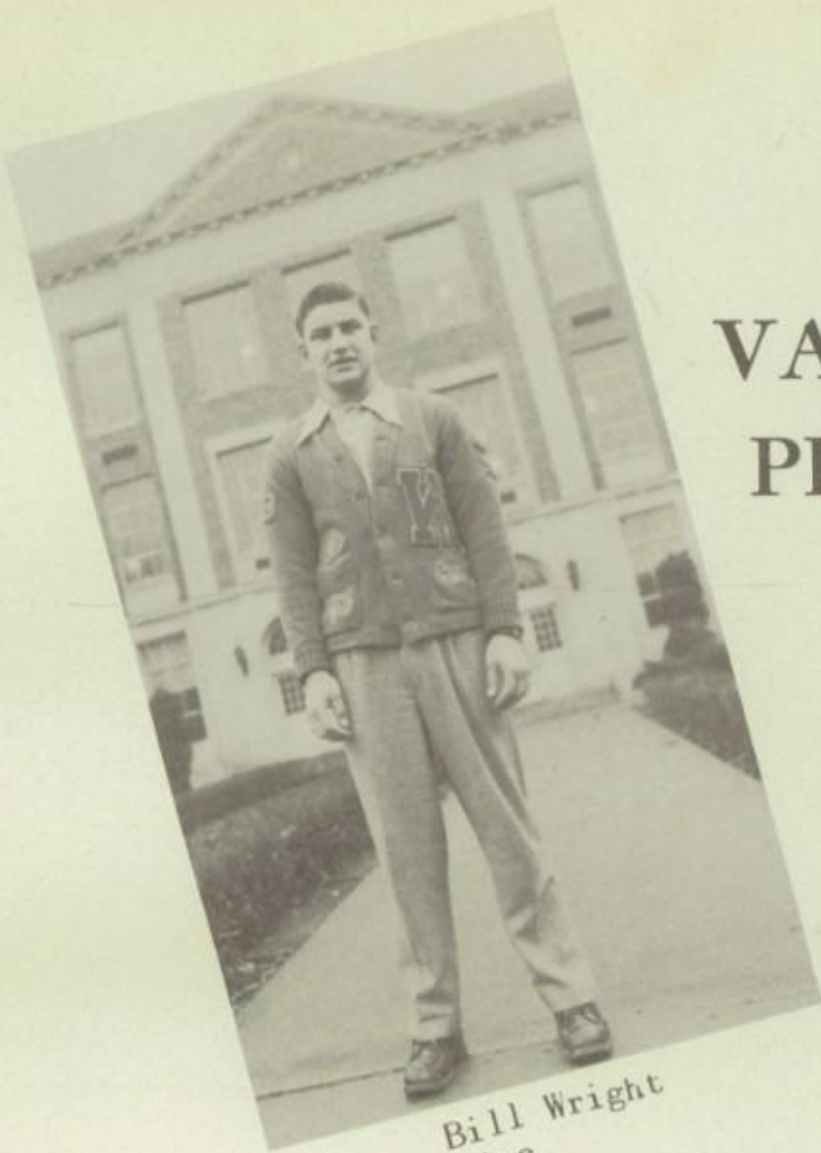

His greatest achievements were on the basketball courts. Zack was the top scorer for the team this year and was acclaimed one of the most outstanding team men in the state.

For his brilliant performance in basketball, Zack was unanimously voted to the guard spot on the All-State Basketball Team.

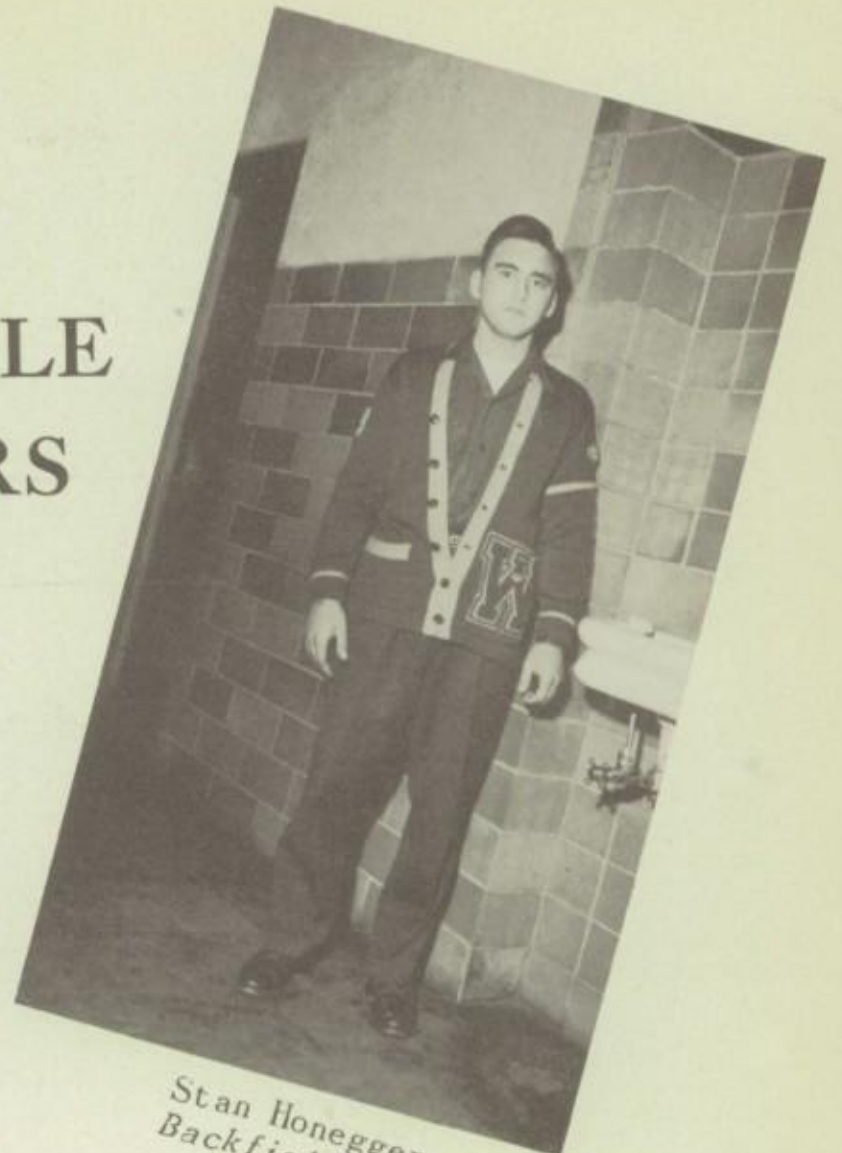

Zack has also held down the third sack and hurled on the baseball team.

Woodruff students and faculty will long remember the 'three sport strong man,' Zack Monroe.

For the second year the papooses have had a rough go on the football field, although the youngsters won 4 out of 9 for a fairly creditable win-lose record.

Sophomores on the team who will be playing varsity ball next year got good experience even though they did lose more than they won. Next year they won't be working for experience and they will be able to concentrate on a winning team.

The team, full of outstanding players, include Walt Durdle, Bob Parrott in the backfield, John Homann, Larry Nance, Jim Kats, Dick Witzig, and Bob Schock on the line.

A speedy and tricky backfield behind a tough and charging line drove to one of Woodruffs most successful seasons in years, with six wins and four losses.

Couch Bouchers charges started out the season with a 7 to 0 victory over a strong Kewanee eleven. Kewanee was the first of five teams to be shut out by the Warriors.

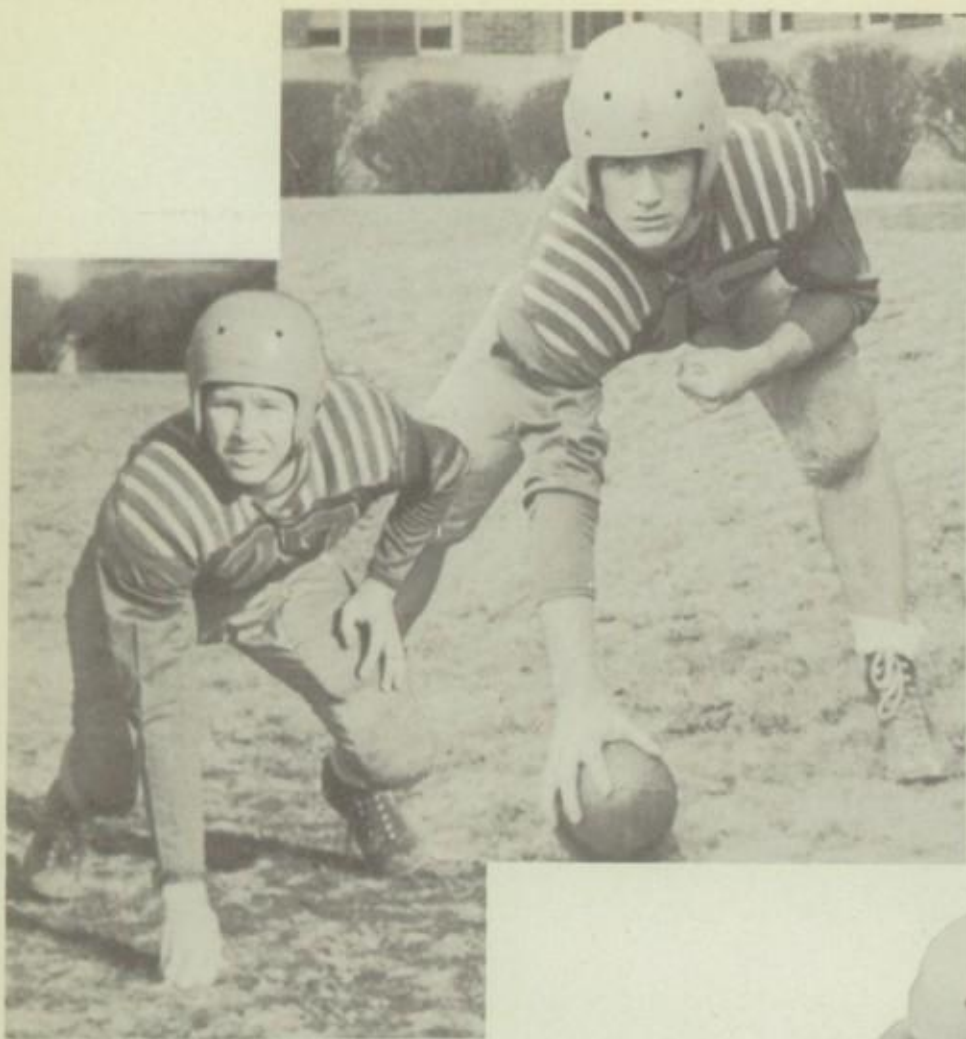

Their second start wasn't as successful for they dropped a 13 to 6 decision to Galesburg. This led to a four game winning streak which included Central, Canton, Blue Island, and Lincoln. They then lost to Manual and Pekin, 6 to 0 and 21 to 14 respectively, but demolished the East Peoria team for the second year straight to retain the Silver Horseshoe. The season was concluded with a heart breaking 7 to 6 lose to Spalding.

The squad included a galaxy of stars. This year 6 of the first string were voted on to the Annual All City First String. The entire warrior 1st. Team was included in the all city selections.

Dick Koepping at center and co-caption, Gene Giacomelli at guard, Leo Davis at end, Bill Wright at tackle, Stan Honegger and Zack Monroe in the backfield composed the biggest share of the G. P. first string. Honorable mention and 2nd. string went to Walter Keller at guard, Bill Weerts at tackle, and Don Shaver and Joel McNulty in the backfield.

VARSITY TRACK TEAM

The old Proverb that, 'The best man always comes across the finish line first,' was proven by the Warrior 48 Cinder squad. Defeated twice by Pekin, once in a dual meet and again in the District and also beaten by Central in the District the daunted Warriors bounced back with a triumphant victory in the Greater Peoria Meet.

The team showed superior power by routing Washburn, Chillicothe, East Peoria, and Streator in dual meets, and Manual and Lincoln in their only triangular meet.

Woodruff was well represented on the state oval at Champaign this past season with five boys competing. An ever improving Junior, Joel McNulty was a Warrior representative in the high jump. Joel was performing for the first time on the Varsity squad and hauled down top point honors. Other competitors who went to state were Senior, Tom Moore, top most miler on the team for the fourth consecutive year, Bob Poindexter, Moore's running partner, Don Tomsovic, half miler and Jerry Kats, in the high hurdles.

Kats came home victorious in the high hurdles to be the first state winner in Woodruff's history.

Three school records were broken during the year. Tom Moore broke the mile record in the Greater Peoria meet setting it down to 4:35.7 minutes. Don Tomsovic lowered the half mile record to 2:4.6 minutes and Jerry Kats knocked the high hurdle record down to 14.9 seconds.

For the second time in three years the Warrior wax court squad walked off with the Regional Tourney after the disastrous season which included 19 loses and 8 wins counting tournamnt play.

Because of a technicality in the state rules the team had to forfeit 6 games. These forfeits knocked Woodruff out of any chance for top glory in the City, Greater Peoria, or Illini Conference races.

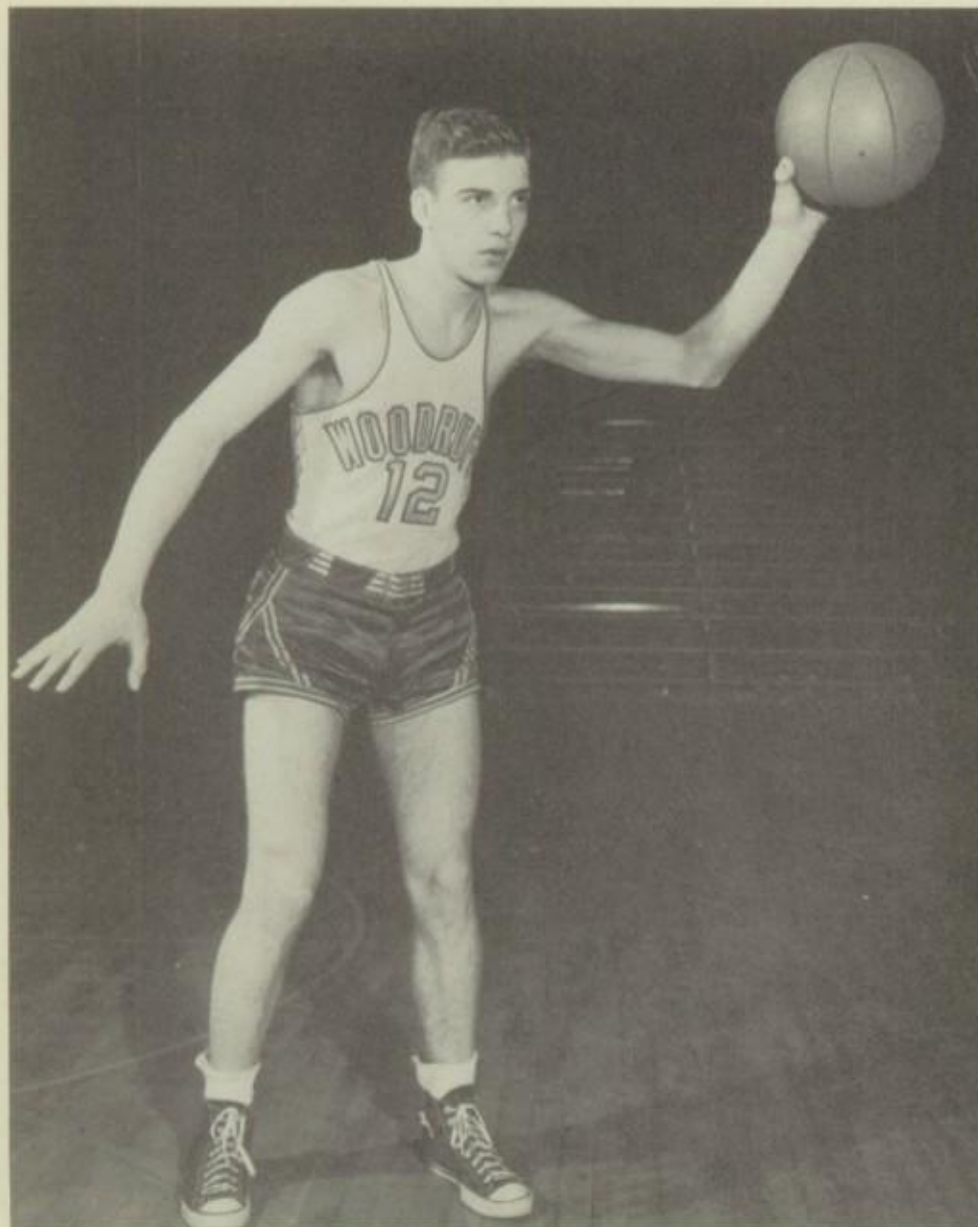

The Warriors, who never say 'die' fought back to a regional win behind the stalwart forward, Zack Monroe. Monroe, who received all state honors, was high scorer for the city with 408 points and an average of 18 6/11 points per game.

Don Hicks, a Junior, was second in scoring on the team. Hicks played his best game against Pekin in the sectional tournament where he dropped in 15 points.

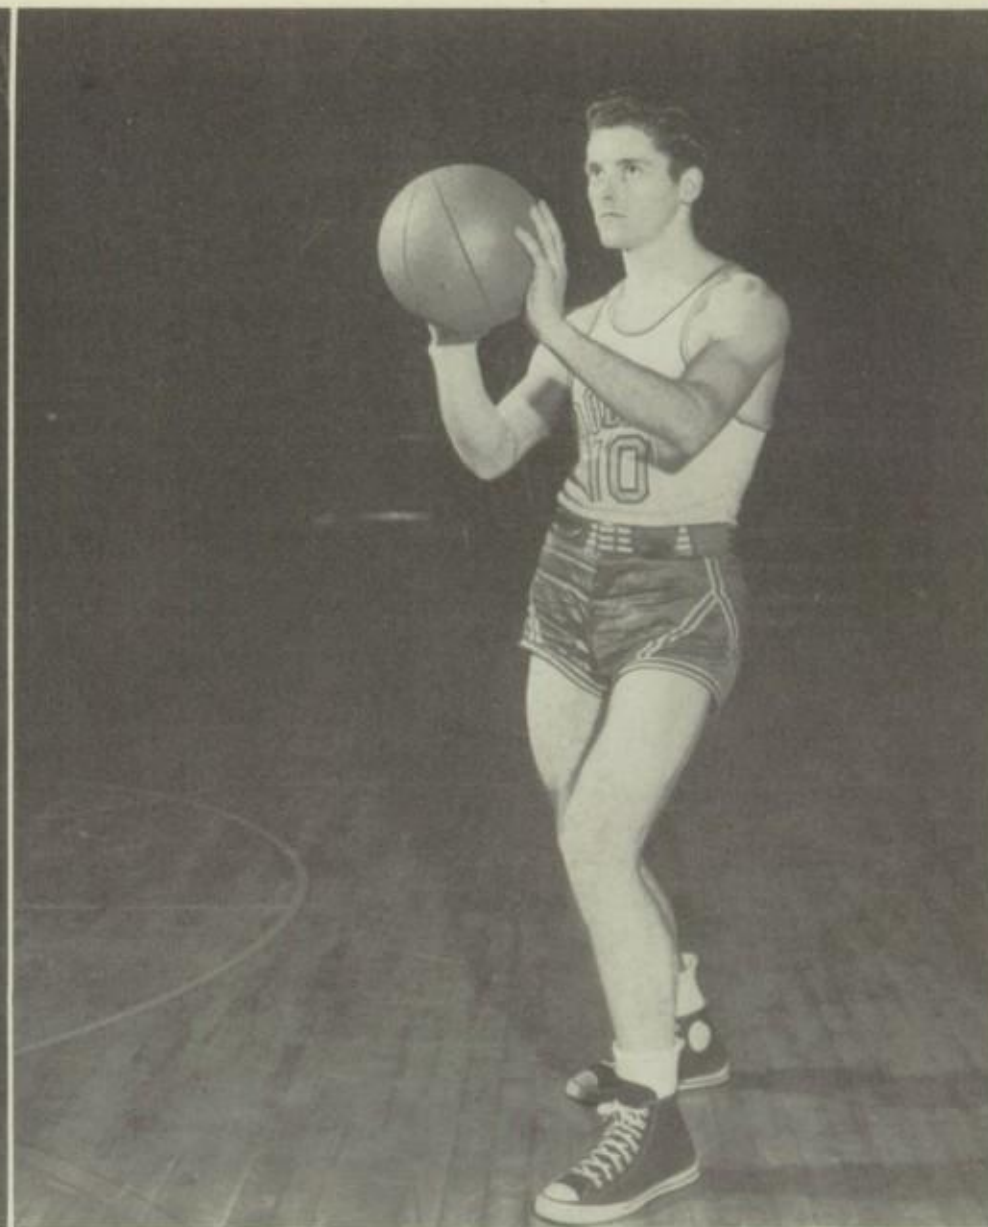

Chuck Ensor, another Junior, is consistently a good point getter.

At guard spot the team had two excellent play-makers and ball-handlers in Jack McMachan and Don Braunagel.

The squad will be extremely strong next year with the addition of two very much improved Sophomores, Fritz Boich and Walt Durdle.

With an inexperienced ball club to do the work, Coach Correll garnered 14 wins out of 20 games for a better than .500 season.

Having lost the experienced pitching staff that carried the team to the State Finals the year before the boys have done very well.

Zack Monroe, one of the greatest athletes ever to attend Woodruff High School, stepped into the empty shoes left by Don Alford at the head of the new pitching staff. He was very nicely backed up by Gordon Lovestrand, Ronny Murray, Bill Shull, Gene Patton, and Don Rager.

The backstop job was left to Don Sutter and Bill Schlesinger.

Although the team did not fare as well in tournament play as they have in years past, we are sure that behind the stellar coaching of Tom Correll that the team will duplicate this feat in the future.

FEATURES

Soon they realized their folly,
Saw their gold was disappearing,
Some could stop but others couldn't.
Some went home as wiser people,
O'er the mountains, deserts, prairies,
O'er the wheat fields, hills, and valleys,
To their homelands back they traveled;
Others stayed to mend their faux pas,
Farming, fishing, still some mining,
But with greater deeper wisdom
Still remembering the fight and struggle
Of their foolish greed for gold.
